Sees Foreign Hand In Attack On South's Ports

CHARGES BRITISH PLOT TO DESTROY AMERICAN MARINE

Washington Senator Says
British Shipping Interests
Are Backed by "Certain U. S. Interests."

MARINE ASSOCIATION MEETS IN WASHINGTON

Criticism of Attitude of British and Other Foreign Shipping Interests
Permeates Convention.

Washington, January 20.—Direct and implied criticism of the attitude of British and other foreign shipping interests toward the newly created American merchant marine permeated today's sessions of the second annual convention of the National Merchant Marine association.

Senator Jones, of Washington, chairman of the senate commerce committee, in the course of his address accused the chamber of commerce of the United States and its magazine, the Nation's Business, as well as the New York state chamber of commerce, of "wittingly or unwittingly" aiding British shipping interests in their fight against the American merchant marine. He declared these organizations sought with eastern trunk line officials to cancel the present equalization of export freight rates from central and southern Atlantic ports to Gulf and South Atlantic ports. Accomplishment of this, he added, would turn exporting and importing business from the Gulf and South Atlantic ports to New York, where, he asserted, the British shipping interests are centered.

Urges Equal Port Rates.

"The excerpts quoted from an agreement of August, 1919," Senator Jones said, "do not leave the question open to doubt as to where the International Mercantile Marine company stands as regards British interests. The question then naturally arises 'where do British shipping interests center in the United States?' The answer is that they center almost entirely in the port of New York, where their large terminal investments are located and from which most of their tonnage on this side of the Atlantic sails.

"Consequently, whatever helps the port of New York benefits British shipping owners. A monopoly of export freight sent through the port of New York spells greater profits for these British owners. It follows, then, that the British shipping men are in accord with the Eastern Trunk Line railway officials who seek to cancel the present equalization of export freight rates from central and southern Atlantic ports to Gulf and South Atlantic ports."

For Southern Ports.

Increased use of western and southern ports by steamship lines was advocated by Harry H. Merriam, of Chicago, president of the Mississippi Valley association.

"It is up to us," he said, "to see that the ships are properly distributed and not controlled by any one or several ports. We, of the Mississippi Valley, see no reason why the distribution of our ships should be controlled by the British admiralty or the British board of trade."

"It is up to all of us to see that the men selected for the new shipping board are men of the public and not of special interests."

Mr. Merriam criticized congress.

Population of China May Be Even Greater When Census Is Taken

Pittsburg, January 20.—The Allegheny county court, in an opinion made public today, dismissed a suit in which the court was called upon to decide if the population of China exceeded 400,000,000. The suit was brought by Cragh Cragh against Alderman William Kroeger, to recover $50. Cragh charged that Kroeger, stakeholder, permitted Mike Babich to collect the money before official figures on China's population had been secured. The suit was dismissed when the court ascertained that no official census of China had ever been taken.

LABOR SECRETARY GIVES 'RED' POLICY

Ideas on Arrest of Radical Aliens Told as Reply to Legion Attack on Official.

Washington, January 20.—The policy of the department of labor with respect to the arrest and deportation of radical aliens, concerning which it has been clashing with the department of justice, is announced for the first time by Secretary Wilson, in a statement made public today at the white house. It was summarized as follows:

"One—No person shall be arrested, based upon information and belief."

"Two—No person, when arrested, shall be held incommunicado."

"Three—Every person arrested shall be entitled to counsel immediately upon being taken into custody."

"Four—They shall be confronted with the evidence and shall be permitted to furnish testimony and be heard in their own behalf."

"Five—Excessive bail shall not be required."

"These safeguards of American liberty, having been provided, if it then is shown by the evidence that any alien is deportable under the so-called anarchistic law, we will deport him with as little compunction as we would attack an invading enemy. We will not deport anyone simply because he has been accused or because he is suspected of being a 'red.' We have no authority to do so under the law."

The labor secretary's statement, which also contained a vigorous defense of his assistant, Louis F. Post, was embodied in a letter sent by Secretary Tumulty to Colonel Henry D. Lindsey, chairman of the executive committee of the American Legion, who presented at the white house last October resolutions adopted by the legion and formally asking for the dismissal of Mr. Post from office because of his attitude with regard to deportations of radicals.

BOY TRIES TO ROB TO PROVIDE ROOF FOR COMING BABE

Norman Day Caught in the Act as He Tries to Open Safe of Hapeville Bank.

WIFE AT ORPHANAGE, WHERE SHE MARRIED

Young Husband Sobs Story of Fight Against Adverse Fortune Since Return From War.

Charged with attempted robbery of the Bank of Hapeville at an early hour Thursday morning, Norman Day, 22 years old, is in the Fulton county tower awaiting action by the grand jury.

Determination to provide a home in which his young wife might give birth to their child is believed to have been the motive of Day's action. Both were inmates of the Georgia Baptist's Orphan's Home at Hapeville for several years and following his arrest the young wife returned to the shelter of the institution. Citizens of Hapeville were shocked when notified that the boy, who was well-known, had been charged with the crime.

Sobbing over the humiliation to his friends and those who have at various times trusted him with large sums of money, young Day brokenly told the story of his life to a Constitution reporter. He refused to tell anything concerning his wife or the institution.

Work of Amateurs.

The lack of experience with which Day attempted to enter the vaults of the bank convinced officials that he was an amateur. City Marshal S. R. Adams and Dr. E. H. Burger, who were attracted to the scene by the noise when Day pried the door open, watched him, the youth was clumsily attempting to work the combination of the vault door. He had no tools, soup, no firearms. He stated that he thought there was "enough money lying around loose to tide him over."

J. M. Daniel, president of the Bank of Hapeville, issued a statement expressing his regret in knowing the case of the young man. He said "Young Day was well-known to me personally," he stated, "I know of many instances wherein he has been trusted with large sums of money. He was popular in our town, and his ambition to make something of himself gained him deep respect."

The romance of the young couple dates back to the time when, 10 years ago, young Day with a young brother and sister, came to the home following the death of their mother in Walker county, where the boy was born and reared in the hills that form the lower range of the Allegheny mountains. His father died when he was four years old and for six succeeding years the boy helped his mother assume the burden of rearing the little family. He said "I grew tired and went to sleep." Then the children were brought to the home in Hapeville. He has several uncles and aunts, he said, but "I expect more sympathy from my friends."

When the boy came down to the home his ruddy complexion, sandy hair and bright disposition soon made him many friends among the two hundred children like himself. But there was one whom he liked better than all the rest. Her name was Della Willis. She was eight years older than he.

Time passed and young Day was 19 and called himself a man. So when the rumble of war late in 1916 indicated that Uncle Sam would soon put on the armor he enlisted in the army. Day returned to Atlanta in July of last year. The girl he had left had grown to woman's estate and shortly after they were married in the chapel of the only place either could call home. "He was working as a switchman for the Western and Atlantic railroad, making good money, he said, when they were married, and the story he told of the home they pictured after so long as just two of "200" was pitiful.

He was working eight hours each day for the railroad. But he used a lot more money if the home was to become a reality. He bought a truck and during the hours before his work he ran a dray and added

Christian Council Scores
Working Conditions for Women, Bootlegging
and Fee System.

Reports rendered before more than one hundred members of the Christian Council, meeting at the Ponce de Leon Baptist church Thursday evening were most favorable to moving pictures in the city, while they scored working conditions for women, bootlegging, and fee system as means of compensation for prosecuting attorneys.

Following a report on the urgent needs of the Georgia Training School for Girls, the assembly passed resolutions to call upon the churches and people of Georgia to see that the next legislature increases its appropriation.

The Christian Council is a body of ministers and laymen of Atlanta banded together with the aim of civic betterment in whatever phase of municipal life the opportunity may come.

Miss Anderson Speaks.

Miss Mary Anderson, director of the women's bureau of the United States department of labor, presented the case of the working girl in Atlanta after a government survey which lasted from May 28 to July 13, 1920. She asked for better wages and shorter hours. Her recommendations have already been carried in The Constitution.

John A. Manget read reports on the liquor question covering the latter half of December declaring: "We find that there is considerable drunkenness in Atlanta and that the illegal sale of liquor by bootleggers is common."

As a result of four weeks of close censorship of the moving pictures by a corps of leading women, Mr. Manget reported that only three had been found objectionable during that period.

The executive committee of 1920, consisting of 31 members, was re-elected intact.

Officers elected were John J. Eagan, acting president; Plato Durkin, honorary president; John J. Eagan, first vice president; Dr. W. H. Major, Philip Welter, vice presidents, and James Morton, secretary and treasurer.

Report by Manget.

The following reports were rendered by Mr. Manget:

"The last few weeks through the aid of eleven representative women and members of the church co-operation committee we have held ten moving picture shows in the city. In all but three of these the picture was a moral one, and the women were not only interested but were also willing to show their pictures to the youth of the community."

In two theaters there were only two pictures seen during the four weeks that were thought harmful. In another theater there were no pictures shown at all. It was a pity that the women were not able to see the pictures in the theaters that were thought to be objectionable.

The committee last night that so many of the showings are not worth while, and hope for plays that may be more instructive and uplifting, rather than so many that are merely amusing."

The committee realizes the great importance of the moving picture industry. We feel that owing to the frequent visits of young people to the theaters that great

Alleged Bigamist Held On Charges Of White Slavery

E. M. Garrett Must Answer
State as Well as Government Charges.

With many phases paralleling the case of Captain Carl Ford, held on bigamy charges, the case of E. M. Garrett, plumber, who was arrested Thursday morning, on suspicion, assumed a stronger similarity Thursday afternoon when the principal was confronted with a white slave charge preferred by federal authorities.

It is alleged that Garrett, who was arrested by city detectives at his shop on Decatur street, married Miss Nora Carter in Chattanooga, and afterwards lived with her in Atlanta for nearly a year, without having secured a divorce from his first wife, who was Miss Eva Bulce, whom he is said to have married in 1914. The second Mrs. Garrett is also being held on a blanket charge of disorderly conduct.

The federal warrant, sworn out by agents of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, was issued by United States Commissioner W. Colquhoun Carter. The government charges that Garrett left Atlanta with his second wife before having secured a divorce from his first wife, and that he was married in violation of the Mann white slave act.

Garrett insists that he did not marry the woman claiming to be his second wife. Mrs. Garrett No. 2, however, claims that they were married in Chattanooga by a justice of the peace.

Latest developments in the case against Mrs. Caroline Cohen, of Fort McPherson, recently indicted by the Fulton county grand jury under a charge of shoplifting, on two counts, revealed the fact Thursday that several days ago she left the state without having been arrested, and without making bond.

Assistant District Attorney Paul Carpenter, whom she has employed in her defense, stated Thursday night to the Constitution that he was able to communicate with her, but refused to reveal her present address. He said that his client is now in an adjoining state, but that he feared that she would be caught and when he did lay down to

Doesn't Remember Fight With Hinton, Declares Farrell

Pestered by Camera Men,
Lieutenant Feared He Was
"Going Nutty."

Rockaway, N. Y., January 20.—Recovering sufficiently from the effects of his recent balloon trip to the frozen north, Lieutenant Stephen A. Farrell appeared today before a naval board of inquiry and testified he had scarcely any remembrance of coming to blows with his comrade, Lieutenant Walter Hinton, on their return to civilization.

The court previously had heard Lieutenant Louis A. Kloor, balloon commander, skirt the incident, which occurred at Mattice after Farrell had learned the newspapers had published a letter from Hinton to his wife asserting Farrell had asked his companions to cut his throat during their four days' wandering in the woods.

The court, too, had heard Hinton testify that he had consulted Farrell regarding the advisability of disarming Farrell. Today, however, was Farrell's "day in court," and all eyes were turned on him as he took the stand.

Admits Lugging.

He admitted that several times he had lugged behind his companions, but he made no mention of a knife. He did, however, state that at the time of the encounter he was "all in," and that after the clash he had told Kloor he feared he "was going nutty."

Farrell said that his condition was due to lack of sleep. "The night before their arrival at Mattice it was his turn to stand watch over their camp and when he did lay down to

NEW HEAD OF ORGANIZATION OUTLINES PLANS FOR JUNIOR CHAMBER—WOMEN'S WORK PRAISED.

Conservation of the lives of all Atlantans to Atlanta's progress and the erasure of factional lines were the salient points in the inaugural address of Lee Ashcraft, who Thursday night was installed as president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce at the chamber's annual dinner in Taft hall. This occasion drew the largest attendance such an event has ever drawn in Atlanta, almost a thousand being seated at the dinner.

"A fighting spirit in Atlanta and an optimism which can not be crushed are the things Atlanta needs to bolster up the better co-ordination of effort and better mutual understanding among her citizenry," said Mr. Ashcraft. "There has not been, for instance, a great measure of co-operation between the city hall and the chamber of commerce, but the chamber hereby signifies its unsolicited willingness to put its shoulder to the wheel in any movement for the good of Atlanta, for it is for the good of Atlanta that we work."

"The chamber has been called a bunch of aristocrats, but if we are that, thank God there are 3,300 of us working heart and soul for Atlanta."

Coroner Orders Arrest of Brother to Family Who Were All Found With Bullets Through Head.

Florence, S. C., January 20.—Edmund Bigham, brother of L. S. Bigham, who was supposed to have killed his mother, his sister, Mrs. Marie Black, and two adopted children, and then committed suicide at Pamplico, near here, last Saturday, was arrested this afternoon on orders from Coroner Smith, who has been conducting an investigation of the tragedy. Bigham was brought here and placed in jail.

Several negroes will be arrested and held as material witnesses, it was learned tonight from the coroner.

Edmund Bigham was arrested on the strength of a warrant sworn out today before Magistrate Welton by John W. McCracken, father of the two little children, Leo and John McCracken, who were killed and who had been adopted by Mrs. Black. An affidavit by Philip H. Arrowsmith, an attorney of Florence, also declared that Edmund Bigham had threatened the life of Mrs. Black when she had attempted to recover possession of three signed blank checks which had been taken from L. S. Bigham by his brother.

In his affidavit Mr. Arrowsmith declared Mrs. Black came to him on January 8 and requested him to draw up for her, charging that Edmund Bigham had threatened her life. The affidavit also stated that Mrs. Black had told him she had given to L. S. Bigham three signed blank checks; that Edmund had taken these papers away from Smiley and when she attempted to regain possession of them Edmund had threatened her life. Edmund had no interest in the Bigham estate, having conveyed his interest to his mother and brother, it was stated.

Arrowsmith declared he drew the will in accordance with instructions placing in it the reason why Mrs. Black wanted to leave her property to L. S. Bigham. The will has been found, according to the authorities.

DECISION REACHED AT MEETING HELD BY CITY COUNCIL

$4,000,000 Provided for Schools, $2,850,000 for Waterworks, $1,250,000 for Sewers.

MONEY ALSO ASKED FOR GREAT VIADUCT

Will Form Link That Would Provide Another
Cross-Town Artery for City, Costing $750,000.

By unanimous vote, city council, at its special session Thursday afternoon, tentatively approved submitting to the voters of Atlanta the question of a bond issue of $8,850,000, and fixed the date for holding the election as Tuesday, March 8. The issue will be for five per cent bonds, and will be divided as follows:

For new schools and equipment, $4,000,000.

For improvement of the waterworks, $2,850,000.

For extension of the sewer system, $1,250,000.

For construction of a viaduct connecting Spring street with the Terminal Station plaza, forming a link that would provide another cross-town artery, $750,000.

Provide for Amendment.

Coupled with the bond ordinance council passed a resolution requesting the Georgia general assembly, at its next session, to amend the city charter providing that the ad valorem tax rate of Atlanta be increased from $1.15 to $1.50 on the $100, the extra revenue to be utilized toward paying the interest and sinking fund on the bonds.

The original bond ordinance, which was introduced jointly by Councilmen R. A. Gordon and J. C. Murphy, did not include waterworks and specified only $2,000,000 for schools. There was a general demand for not less than $4,000,000 on school improvement and the authors readily assented to the change.

Alderman C. L. Chosewood and Alderman N. T. Spratt introduced an amendment to the ordinance including $2,850,000 of waterworks bonds. The only negative vote cast was by Alderman Harry Goodhart, who, though voting "no" in protest, he is one of the staunchest bond advocates in council. He maintained his position in the aldermanic board meeting following council's adjournment, when the board occurred in the afternoon.

GRAFT IS CHARGED IN SHIPBUILDING

Dual Connection of Charles M. Schwab Cited as Reason for Many Improper Payments.

New York, January 20.—At least $100,000,000 improperly paid shipbuilders by the United States shipbuilding board will be disclosed through an audit of accounts now in progress, Colonel E. H. Abadie, former comptroller general of the board, declared here today before the Walsh congressional committee.

Colonel Abadie charged that there were "a great many serious irregularities" in the dealings between the Bethlehem Shipbuilding corporation and the government as a result of the connection of Charles M. Schwab with both the board and the corporation.

Things had been done and allowed, he testified, "because of Mr. Schwab's connection which probably would not be allowed otherwise, and though I was satisfied Mr. Schwab knew personally nothing of them, the influence from Mr. Schwab's dual position was prevalent just the same."

"Though at that time I had never met Mr. Schwab I was satisfied from my knowledge of his record that he would be the first to commit an injustice by his corporation towards the government and would willingly and gladly return any monies improperly paid his corporation."

The witness said he never talked to Mr. Schwab about the alleged irregularities, but believed Mr. Schwab would have welcomed an audit of the Bethlehem corporation.

In reply to questions, he made it plain that his charges did not include the Bethlehem corporation alone, but various ship yards throughout the country.

Cameras Bothered Him.
When he reached the camp Farrell said that he was absolutely "dog tired," but the camera men continued to bother him.

"I smiled for them, smoked cigarettes for them and did everything they asked to please them and was all in when they got through with me," he added.

He said he accepted the invitation of a Hudson Bay company man to go to his room and have tea. While in the room waiting for the man's mother to prepare food, Farrell said the room began filling with men who questioned him.

Forgets Incident.
"The questioning seemed to drive me wild," he said. "I worried me; I seemed to be fast losing my sense of reasoning power. I remember one of them telling me about things published about me in the newspapers. I seemed to get all excited. I was shaking all over the place. When the Hudson Bay man took me to the company's store and from there to the private car, I seemed to be 'dopey,' 'dog tired' and 'all in.' I could not sleep when I laid down. I scarcely remember seeing Hinton, and I was going 'nutty.'"

At this point Farrell said he did not remember the incident with Lieutenant Hinton.

"Kloor told me I had better apologize to Hinton," he said, "and I did so. Lieutenant Hinton and I had always been good friends before the incident and have been since."

The flight of the balloon cost the government $8,740, the value of equipment lost in the trip, Lieutenant E. R. Corbin, paymaster at the naval air station here, told the board of inquiry.

This sum included the value of the balloon as well as its equipment and that of the three balloonists.

Government Gets Pay For Liquor And Liquor, Too

That liquor shipped as "roofing pitch" must be paid for at pitch rates by the consignee, even though the government receives both pitch and liquor, is the sum and substance of a decision handed down by the court of appeals Thursday morning.

The case in which this pitch-liquor decision was rendered originated in the city court of Macon as S. C. Clemons vs. J. B. Payne, director general of railroads.

According to affidavits submitted, Walker D. Hines, director general at the time of the suit, charged the existence of an agreement between shipper and consignee to conceal liquor in barrels of pitch.

In October, 1918, a shipment of "roofing pitch" was seized by federal agents. In the center of the barrels liquor was found surrounded by bona fide pitch. The consignee then refused to pay tariff on either pitch or liquor. Director General Hines instituted proceedings against the consignee to collect freightage according to liquor rates.

Holding that the transportation of liquor is in violation of both federal and state statutes, and that the contract to transport "roofing pitch" was made in good faith on the part of the railroad, the court of appeals decided that the consignee was responsible for freightage on "roofing pitch."

County School Boards.
Americus, Ga., January 20.—(Special.) County school superintendents and members of the county school boards throughout the third district, will gather in Americus tomorrow for a one-day convention at the Third District Agricultural and Mechanical college.

L. L. Brittain, state superintendent of education, will preside over the convention.

BRITAIN TO PRESIDE AT EDUCATIONAL MEET

Daytona, Fla., January 20.—Discussions of progress in rural education and of plans for still greater advancement will mark the three days' session of the Citizens Educational conference, of the southeast which was opened here tonight.

More than 200 delegates, representing twenty-seven states and three foreign countries, were present for the formal opening exercises tonight. Addresses were made by Dr. J. L. McBrien, of the bureau of education, Washington, D. C.; by L. Brittain, state superintendent of schools in Georgia; J. E. Swearingen, of South Carolina, and A. E. Akers, of North Carolina. W. N. Sheats, Florida state superintendent of schools, will preside at tomorrow morning's session and Superintendent Brittain during the afternoon.

Then the Colonel Up and Said:
"Paint is the Cheapest Thing I Buy"
After Which He Proved It

"He pointed his long, slim finger at me and told me what lumber costs these days. And nails. And labor. Then he showed me how the house I built for $50,000, ten years ago, would cost more than double today."

"Then he told me how I paid every year $37.50 a thousand for five thousand of life insurance protection, and then put up a boiler, because it cost $25 a thousand invested, to protect my house 7 years."

"Figuring at its present value of $10,000, painting that house would cost me only $12.50 a thousand."

By J. H. Hines, the Colonel had me. Paint is sure enough the cheapest protection or insurance I buy.

If it's cheapest for me, it's cheapest for you. To which remark, let us add that Lowe Brothers' Paint is cheapest of all, because it goes farther and costs less to make it go. Furthermore, it has the lastingness.

YOUR INVISIBLE GUEST

WHAT ATLANTA HAS GIVEN AND WILL GIVE

ATLANTA'S SHARE

Fifty cents apiece for every Atlantan—

One starving child as the invisible guest of every twenty people in our city— This much is asked of Atlanta's two hundred and fifty thousand people to save from mutilation and death by starvation twelve thousand five hundred babies, small boys and girls, $125,000—

About the sum we give each year for tickets at six days of Grand Opera— Not to count the cost of clothes and jewels and the dinners during opera week, the price of one of which meals would save many children.

There would be no singing in Atlanta if twelve thousand five hundred of our boys and girls, about one-half the children of our schools, were dying of hunger.

Let's have the music,
And save the children too.

Atlanta's Gift

Since Henry Grady showed that only love
Could heal a country's wounds,
And dying, left a heritage of love
To draw a divided nation together,
The spirit of Atlanta has been love.

Commercial? Yes.

Her sons have ventures bringing gold
From every quarter of the globe.

But these men have ever shared their wealth—
First to care for Atlanta's own,
Then to help to bear the burdens of Georgia,
Our country and the world.

Many of the city's boys sleep in Europe's breast,
Her gift, far more priceless than money,
To enable women and little children
To live happily and unafraid.

Never has Atlanta closed her ears to a cry for help.

And no son or daughter of hers,
Worthy of being called an Atlantan,
Will fail to hear and help
The suffering mothers and babies of Europe.
To a broken world,

Atlanta will show the same spirit
For which Henry Grady pleaded,
When the horrors of the aftermath of war
Still scarred the heart of Atlanta and the South.

You, who can give thousands easily—
You, to whom hundreds would mean little—
And you to whom fifty cents will be a sacrifice—
Give today.

Every man, woman and child in Atlanta should Share the joy of saving starving children.
Let their laughter, and not the tears of mothers bereft.

Mingle with the music of our Opera.
Give Atlanta's Spirit again to the world.

Borah Resolution On Disarmament Passes Committee

Would Institute Negotiations Between Britain, U. S. and Japan on Navy Size

Washington, January 20.—A definite step toward international disarmament was taken by the senate foreign relations committee today in ordering a favorable report on the resolution of Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, proposing negotiations between the United States,

Great Britain and Japan to reduce naval programs. Discussion of the resolution in the senate is not planned before next week and action on it at the present session of congress is considered to be in doubt. Advocates of the resolution, however, hope the senate debate will give impetus to general disarmament sentiment here and abroad.

Without Roll Call.
The committee approved the Borah resolution without a roll call after it had voted down, 8 to 3, an alternative resolution by Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, proposing American participation. All democrats present supported the Walsh measure and all republicans voted against it. Senator Shields, democrat, of Tennessee, although absent, was recorded in opposition.

Some changes were made by the committee in the Borah resolution. One was the inclusion of the provision that any agreements between the United States, Great Britain and Japan for naval building reductions, should be promulgated formally by treaty. Another amendment struck out Senator Borah's original proposal to negotiate for a 50 per cent reduction in naval building, the committee deciding to leave this question open for whatever reduction might be arranged.

Debate Expected.
Confinement of the negotiations to the three principal naval powers as originally proposed by Senator Walsh was approved by the committee, a proposal by Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota, to include France and Italy in the parties being rejected.

Senator Borah plans to call up the resolution in the senate at the first opportunity, probably next week. Considerable debate and a demagogic effort to substitute the Walsh resolution are expected.

Peggy Marsh Is Bride
Of Albert L. Johnson,
Nephew of Ex-Mayor

New York, January 20.—The marriage of Peggy Marsh, English actress, to Albert L. Johnson, member of a prominent New York and Cleveland, Ohio, family, at Greenwich, Conn., on January 18, became known here today. The ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace Albert Meade.

The bride is confined in a sanitarium here, where she recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

The actress came to this country a few weeks ago and announced she would institute legal proceedings to obtain part of the fortune of the late Henry Field II, of Chicago, on behalf of her 4-year-old son, Henry Anthony Marsh.

The bride is a son of Albert L. Johnson, brother of the late Tom Johnson, who served four terms as mayor of Cleveland.

IGNORANT NEGRO
CAUSE OF WORRY FOR OWN RACE

Tuskegee, Ala., January 20.—"I am not specially worried about negroes who are attending colleges and universities or Tuskegee and Hampton, but I am vastly concerned with the large number of negroes who are not in school, and who are not receiving even an elementary education," declared Dr. Robert R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee Institute, in an address here today at the closing Workers' day session.

Dr. Moton urged teachers, ministers, social workers and other community leaders who had assembled to discuss the "problem" of improving rural life through the church, the school and recreation to "pull together" and not allow any forces to separate those who are attempting to bring about progress and interracial good-will throughout the south.

PROFITEERING PROBE BLOCKED, HE CHARGES

Investigator of Coal Profit- eering Claims Work Im- peded by New York Organization.

Washington, January 20.—Today's study of the coal industry by the senate committee considering the Calder regulation bill brought from Chairman Thompson of the federal trade commission, the statement that congress must either "restore competition in the coal industry or face nationalization," and from Armand W. Riley, special assistant to the attorney general, charges that the New York Wholesale Coal association had "put every obstacle in the way" of Lever act proceedings against alleged coal profiteers.

Mr. Riley also presented to the committee sales records of Pennsylvania anthracite mines which he said showed the transaction last year of $13 and $15 a ton at mine mouths for coal which "fair price circulars" valued at $8. He demurred to giving further public testimony regarding the New York Wholesale Coal association, its secretary, and Charles S. Allen, its counsel, as "indefinitely instrumental in the placing of obstacles," because, he said, "publicity would impede the work of the grand jury now sitting in New York."

Chairman La Follette thereupon took the committee into executive session and when it came out after concluding with Mr. Riley, members declined to extend hearings on the Calder bill an indefinite period.

PLANTER CHARGED ON WIFE MURDER WHEN HOME BURNS

Aberdeen, Miss., January 20.—William T. Thwaitt, planter, who was arrested here this morning on a warrant charging him with murdering his wife, was charged with the death of his wife on Monday, 6 last, late today waived preliminary hearing and was released on $500 bond to await the trial of the Monroe county grand jury.

Thwaitt's arrest followed the action of the coroner's jury which has been investigating the death of Mrs. Thwaitt since the burning of her home in the ruins of her home near here. The verdict of the jury held Thwaitt responsible for his wife's death. Testimony introduced was to the effect that Thwaitt had told neighbors that he was awakened by smoke in the house, that he got up, dressed, packed some of his belongings in a suitcase and then went to a nearby spring to get water to extinguish the fire. He stated, it was testified, that he neglected to awaken his wife before doing this. When he returned the fire had gained such headway, he claimed, that it was impossible for him to rescue his wife.

Additional testimony was introduced at the inquest to show that Mrs. Thwaitt carried life insurance policies totaling $25,000 all respect due to Thwaitt. The insurance companies have employed attorneys to assist in the prosecution of the case.

109TH BIRTHDAY FINDS MRS. KIRBY HALE AND WELL

Union, S. C., January 20.—Mrs. Susan Kirby, of Union, today celebrated her 109th birthday anniversary with an elaborate dinner given in her honor and attended by thirty guests.

Mrs. Kirby, who resides here with her son, appears to be physically and mentally active and until she suffered from influenza two years ago her eyesight was considered remarkable. She has been a member of the Methodist church for 95 years and takes a deep interest in the church.

Born in Rutherford, N. C., she was married in the early fifties to J. M. Kirby and had eleven children, five of whom are living, twenty-one grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren. Mrs. Kirby's maiden name was Susan Constance.

Victims of Thief Recover Property And Jail Suspects

C. C. Abel and J. A. Nations Qualify for Membership on Detective Force.

After a day and night of "gum-shoe" work, with an old felt hat as the only clue, two patrons of a Mitchell street boarding house caused the arrest Thursday night of two alleged robbers, who, it is alleged, entered their room on Tuesday night and stole three suits, two suitcases, an extra pair of trousers, two pairs of shoes, a flashlight and other personal property, and a felt hat.

The prisoners are W. Edwards, aged 19, who stated that he is a student, and Allen Hornkamp, aged 24, an ex-soldier. They both gave their address as 11 Cone street. It developed after their arrest that Edwards faces charges of forgery and of beating his board bill. The details of the two latter charges were not disclosed by detectives. According to Detectives Doyal and Brown, who quizzed the prisoners late Thursday night, partial confessions were obtained.

ever taken by the Atlanta Chamber was placing the formation of the program work in the hands of the street car and railway clerks' of that responsibility." He also pointed out that the chamber now used its use as a civic center for the election method in the selection of officers and directors, as opposed to the old nominating committee means used by so many organizations.

Other angles of the report included the fact that more than 500 meetings were held in the chamber's assembly hall during the past year in its use as a civic center; that 12 forum luncheons were held with an average attendance of 150; that the chamber had been active in the effort toward securing revision of the street car and railway clerks' strikes, in alleviation of the coal shortage, in securing Atlanta's cooperation in the census, in capital retention, in securing headquarters here for the Fourth Army corps headquarters, in aiding the freight car and freight situation, and in the campaign to aid Georgia Tech.

Farm Bureau Activity.

The activity of the farm bureau of the chamber of commerce was also traced by Mr. Robertson, who stated that Mr. Gay, who until recently had had charge of that department, had secured for its use a complete library, from which information was daily sent to members and others who requested it. The community service department of the chamber of commerce, through the Armistice day celebration, the Rotary club, the Kiwanis exercises, as well as other activities, is another phase added to the chamber's work.

SOUTH GA. RAILWAY WILL CUT SALARIES THE FIRST OF FEB.

Quitman, Ga., January 20.—(Special.)—Effective the first of February, the South Georgia Railway company will make a cut in salaries and wages from the highest officer of the road to the lowest track hand. This announcement comes from President J. W. Oglesby, who states that he hopes to be able to restore the present salaries at the expiration of ninety days, but this is only a hope on the part of the corporation, and not a binding promise.

The South Georgia railway was never taken over by the government during the war, and consequently salaries were never as high as probably on other roads operated by the government.

"If the road's earning will permit the restoration of wages after the time stipulated in the order cutting them, they will be restored," says President Oglesby.

BOYS OF EMORY WILL ENTERTAIN WITH NEW STUNTS

Emory University, Ga., January 20.—(Special.)—According to plans outlined by Dr. Malcolm H. Dewey, director of the Emory Glee club today, there will be a "stunt" night two or three weeks hence, in which will be represented the best of the college talent in amateur theatricals, monologues, orchestra and glee club work. The performance will be given in the chapel of the university, and a nominal sum will be charged every student and visitor for admission.

To start off the program in the right spirit, the curtain will be raised on the Emory Jazz Five, who will give several samples of the real article, arrayed in clown suits with blue and gold dots on them. Other skits will be there in numbers and, if last night's stunt night can be taken as an indication of the pleasing variety of numbers offered, it would be safe to predict that of the amusement places in the city, the Emory play which will be given on the 1921 Glee club tour by the students. This play, which is a feature of the Emory Glee club, will be entirely original, and will be an Emory man, "Jomo and Ruel."

The play, which was written by B. G. Watson, then a freshman, followed the same line as a son by a bit of light drama of similar nature, which, it is expected, will not fail to please.

Commander Tells Of Plane Wreck In Wintry Gale

San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua, January 20.—Lieutenant H. V. Baugh, commander of the seaplane NC-5, which was wrecked and sunk when it was into a tremendous hurricane last Saturday about forty miles north of this city during its attempted flight from San Diego, California, to Balboa, Panama canal zone, told of his experiences today.

The seaplane was one of the twelve which left San Diego December 30 for the canal zone.

"When we ran into the hurricane on Saturday our engine was giving trouble," he said. "The wind was blowing about 45 miles an hour and the plane was flung about like a boy's kite with an insufficient tail in the high wind. Eventually it tumbled to the surface of the sea, about twenty miles from land. We 'taxied' to the beach under tremendous difficulties, in a seething sea of foam and in the very teeth of the gale, striking the coast twenty-five miles north of Gigante, where the NC-5 also eventually after radiographing to the ships following us the position of the NC-5.

The Kanawha arrived and took the NC-5 in tow, later handing it over to the destroyer Munford. The latter took the crew aboard and continued towing the seaplane. The line parted frequently owing to the heavy sea, however, the NC-5 eventually sinking."

MAJOR TALMADGE PASSED THURSDAY AT ATHENS HOME

Athens, Ga., January 20.—(Special.)—Major John E. Talmadge, Sr., one of the most prominent citizens and business men in this section of the state, died at his home today after an illness of several weeks. He was head of Talmadge Bros. company, wholesale grocers, which is one of the largest concerns in the state.

Major Talmadge has been prominent in all movements for the good of the community. He was veteran of the civil war and an elder in the Presbyterian church. He was noted for his liberality in giving to all charitable institutions and helping those in need.

Major Talmadge was born in Clarke county in 1849, the son of William A. Talmadge. His whole life was spent in Atlanta, where he contributed immeasurably to the up-building of the community and the forwarding of all enterprises having for their purpose the making of a better city and a more enlightened people. He was a confederate veteran, having entered the service of the southland when sixteen years of age, and after the war, his comrades showed their love and regard for him by electing him commander of the Cobb-Reagan camp of the United Confederate Veterans.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian church, of which he was an elder, Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and interment will follow in Oconee cemetery. He is survived by his widow and six children, C. A. J. E. Jr., C. G. and J. L. Talmadge; Mrs. Rosa Fitts and Mrs. Julius Cohen, of Macon, Ga.

SMARR ARRESTED FOR SECOND TIME. FOLLOWING PROBE

Savannah, Ga., January 20.—The rearrest last night of John F. Smarr, who killed John A. McCann, state secretary of the Georgia Federation of Labor, on the night of January 11, and who was released by a coroner's jury, was explained today by union labor leaders who have been investigating the case. They declare that the facts they have gathered do not agree with the statement given by Smarr that he found McCann at home with his wife unexpectedly. Smarr is now being held without bail on a charge of murder. It is alleged by those behind the prosecution that Smarr had notified his employers he would not be at work on the night in question, and that he purchased a revolver two hours before the shooting. He had testified he found the revolver in his bureau drawer at home after surprising McCann with Mrs. Smarr. Smarr's attorney announced he would ask for bail for his client before the judge of the superior court today.

POSSE SURROUNDS AN ISLAND WHERE BUCHANAN HIDES

Lumber City, Ga., January 20.—Posse pursuing John Buchanan, whom Wheeler county officers say J. C. Thompson named as an accomplice in the murder of Robert Wilcox, reported tonight they had surrounded Buchanan on Bearie's Island, thirty miles down the Altamaha river. His arrest is expected by morning. The hide of Wilcox, son of a prominent farmer, has not been recovered. Three arrests have been made in connection with the case.

LOWER RATES SOUGHT ON LOW-GRADE LUMBER

Memphis, Tenn., January 20.—A campaign for lower freight rates on all low grade hardwood lumber was inaugurated at the annual meeting of the Southern Hardwood Traffic Association here today. Under the plan adopted the matter will be taken up with railroad officials at once.

Under existing freight rates, it was stated in resolutions adopted, it is impossible to ship the lower grades of southern hardwoods to the principal consuming markets in competition with corresponding grades from northern producing points.

DEFENSE TO SEEK CHANGE OF VENUE IN LYNCHING CASE

Jasper, Ala., January 20.—The special grand jury will make its final report on the William Baird lynching case tomorrow morning to Judge Sowell, of the circuit court. It was stated this afternoon, Special Assistant Attorney General Wilkinson having completed presentation of evidence at today's session.

Witnesses before the grand jury today included persons who live in the vicinity of the scene of the lynching, for which nine national guardsmen, members of Company M of Tuscaloosa, have already been indicted. Members of the grand jury visited the Walker county jail, from which Baird was taken by the mob on the morning of January 15.

Announcement was made that counsel for the accused men will appear before Judge Sowell probably tomorrow to ask for a change of venue. Judge Wilkinson conferred with Governor Kirby by telephone relative to the proposed motion, but no announcement was made as to whether the move would be resisted.

Woman Ad Club Executive To Be Entertained Here

Miss Jane Martin, of New York city, who enjoys the distinction of being the only woman on the national executive board of the Ad Men's association, will be in Atlanta next Tuesday and will be the guest of a luncheon at the Georgian Terrace hotel, when her hostess will be Miss Theodore Stansbury, who is chairwoman of the activities of the Atlanta Ad Men's association.

Miss Martin comes to Atlanta in the interest of the forthcoming national convention to be held in Atlanta, and she will meet at the luncheon Tuesday a group of Atlanta women who are doing things.

Miss Martin was elected to the responsible office on the national executive board at the convention in New Orleans in 1919, even before women had been recognized as citizens. She is a woman of brilliancy and ability, and her visit to Atlanta will be an inspiring incident to the women fortunate enough to be invited to meet her.

Mid-Winter Dinner-Dance At Capital City Club

The dinner-dance last evening at the Capital City club was an interesting event of the mid-winter social season. The ballroom was decorated with handsome palms, and garlands of amaranth adorned the side walls. Each table had for the center decoration a French basket filled with white and yellow hyacinths, combined with red carnations and ferns. There were two hundred guests present, and a feature of the evening was the exceptionally fine music played by the Meyer-Davis orchestra from Washington, D. C., which will remain in Atlanta for several other social affairs. Dinner was served at 8 o'clock.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Don't Look Old! Try Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded, Streaked Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur restores its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair. Everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.—(adv.)

FIERY, ITCHING SKIN

IS QUICKLY SOOTHED BY USING SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing soothes fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist. The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up. A small jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.—(adv.)

pose of raising money for the athletic sports and to beautify the school grounds. Everybody is invited to attend. Games for every age and class will be played. Lovely prizes will be given and refreshments served.

Mrs. Dorsey, Hostess.

Mrs. Roy Dorsey will entertain twelve friends informally at tea this afternoon at her home on Wesley road, in compliment to Miss Carrie Pembrey, a bride-elect, and Miss Virginia Bowman, who has recently returned to Atlanta for residence after spending several years in New York.

Recital Today by Miss Eisenberg.

Of cordial interest to those who care for music and are interested in the development of the musical talent in Atlanta will be the recital of piano music by Miss Birdie Eisenberg, the pupil of Miss Evelyn Jackson, at Edison Hall this evening. The program will begin at 8:30. An invitation has been extended to the general public to attend, and those who keep in close touch with things musical will find in Miss Eisenberg's concert much to give them pleasure. Although still in her early teens, the young artist has already given unusual promise, as has been shown recently in her appearances before the juvenile department of the Atlanta Music Study club, of which she is a member. Inspired with temperament and possessing a musical sense that gives her a keen insight into the art, she has come forward rapidly in her work.

$51,000 DAMAGE ACTION IS FILED AGAINST CENTRAL

Columbus, Ga., January 26.—(Special.)—Alleging personal injury and property damage, Dr. F. L. Crosby, Jr., a prominent local physician, through his attorneys, T. Hicks Fort and Frank U. Garrard, has filed suit for $51,000 damages against the Central of Georgia Railway company, in the superior court.

In his petition Mr. Crosby claims that he sustained injuries when a train backed into his automobile at the Eleventh street crossing on the night of October 6, 1920. He recites that he was driving east on the street, and alleges a string of cars attached to an engine, approached the crossing without a light on the car nearest the crossing, or without a signal to warn him of the approach. He claims his car was overturned by the crash and dragged thirty or forty feet before it came to a standstill.

For personal injuries said to have resulted from the incident, the petitioner, seeks $30,000 and asks $1,000 for property damage.

ERSKINE HALL KILLED BY BROTHER-IN-LAW

Orangeburg, S. C., January 26.—Erskine Hall was shot and killed early today by his brother-in-law, John F. Sawyer, at Sawyersdale, twenty miles from here, according to reports received tonight.

Hall and his wife quarrelled, according to the report, and she fled to the home of her brother for protection, followed by Hall with a shotgun. Sawyer met Hall at the door and in the fight that followed killed him with a pistol.

their member banks to make loans to cotton farmers on a basis of 25 cents a pound middling on warehouse receipts would enable the growers to meet cost of production and bring relief to the business world. Martin Amorous, a cotton producer of Marietta, Ga., told the house banking and currency committee today. Cotton growers, he said, are not getting within 10 cents a pound of the cost of production at the present market prices.

The Lee resolution also would direct the federal reserve board to permit the federal reserve banks to grant liberal extensions of credit to the cotton farmers of the country upon the security of the cotton now held by them by permitting the redempting of such notes of extension at the lowest possible rate of interest. Mr. Amorous said this would relieve the situation materially.

METHODISTS TO PUSH EDUCATION PROGRAM

Financial Directors and Commissioners Meet in Memphis in February.

Nashville, Tenn., January 26.—The thirty-fifth annual conference of financial directors and commissioners of the Christian education movement of the Southern Methodist church will be held in Memphis February 2-3, to perfect organization of the financial department of the movement. Bishop James Cannon, Jr., chairman, and the commission, will preside, and several other bishops will be in attendance. The meeting will be followed by a gathering of the minute men's organization.

Mass meetings will be held during February in thirty-six large cities to stress the objectives of the educational program. Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, has served to speak at a number of these meetings.

FEDERAL TRADE BODY

ATTACKED IN SENATE

Republican Declares Report Has "Seriously Impaired" U. S. Export Trade.

Washington, January 26.—The federal trade commission was attacked in the senate today by Senator Sherman, republican, Illinois, on the ground that it had "seriously impaired" American export trade in meats by circulation abroad of its reports charging the "big five" meat packers with monopoly.

In a lengthy address opposing the pending bill for federal regulation of the packing industry, Senator Sherman declared that the "trade commission's reports were 'intended' to injure the American packers' export trade and had actually done so."

"The commission's reports were sent broadcast through the state department with a form letter to make it appear that the president was behind its circulation," said Senator Sherman. "In every case it was sent where the most mischief could be done. The reports were sent abroad for the express purpose of turning foreigners against American meat products."

HOOVER WARNS OF DOMINANCE FROM LIVERPOOL

Washington, January 26.—Destruction of the New York and New Orleans cotton exchanges would transfer the "hedging" practice to the Liverpool market and make it dominant. Herbert Hoover declared today before the house agricultural committee, which is considering bills looking to the regulation of future exchanges. The relationship of the Liverpool market to the two American cotton markets, he asserted, needs "careful inquiry."

Georgia Railroad Still Handles Clyde Line Business

Arrangements have been made by which fast water and rail service from New York, Boston and other Eastern territory to points in Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and the Southwest will be handled in connection with the Clyde Line and Georgia Railroad.

This service was first established in 1874, being at that time known as the Great Southern Fast Freight Line, in later years known as the Clyde-Charleston Fast Freight Line, and operated continuously until the Clyde Line steamers were taken over by the Government for war purposes.

Package and solid cars will be forwarded from Charleston each Thursday, Saturday and Monday night, delivery being made to Georgia Railroad at Augusta, giving third evening delivery via Georgia Railroad at Atlanta; fourth morning delivery via Georgia Railroad and West Point Route at Montgomery and Selma; freight for Birmingham, Chattanooga, Nashville and other Southern and Southwest points will be delivered to connecting lines at Atlanta on third evening from New York and fourth evening from Boston, giving fourth morning delivery at Chattanooga and fourth evening delivery at Nashville, Knoxville and Birmingham.

The distance from Charleston to Atlanta via Augusta and Georgia Railroad is the shortest available route by 115 miles.

The re-establishment of this service via the old route will be of much interest to the jobbers and retailers in Atlanta and other points in the South who have learned to rely upon the dependable schedule of past years.—(adv.)

Too much sex stuff in the movies? What is it doing to your daughter?

SOMETHING is certainly wrong with the movies. Overemphasis of sex has been played to the limit.

What that something is, is fearlessly revealed by Benjamin B. Hampton, who is himself President of four big motion picture companies and Vice-president of a fifth.

He tells you why we get such titles as these—"Secret Sin," "The Lure of the Other Woman," "Guilty Wives," etc., etc. Why we get such pictures as this—"Her husband drew the girl to him—a long, long kiss—I this pretty girl, so unlike his wife, her eyes lighted with love-flames, smiling wantonly" etc., etc.

Why must motion picture houses offer this abnormal kind of amusement?

Mr. Hampton tells you things no one on the inside has ever told before. And he gives you besides an interesting peep into the daily lives of many of the stars of movie-land.

He tells you just what is the matter with a certain type of movie and exactly why this sex-stuff is being offered to young girls.

You will be shocked when you learn who is responsible.

"Too Much Sex-Stuff in the Movies" is the most startling article ever published on the subject. And most important of all, the author explains exactly how you can change these conditions in your town. Read Mr. Hampton's frank article on page 11 of Pictorial Review for February.

GERMAN PAYMENT AIM OF FRANCE

New Ministry Places German Disarmament First on Program, and Reparations Payment Second.

Paris, January 20.—(By the Associated Press).—The French ministry presented to parliament this afternoon its program, in which disarmament of Germany takes first place and payment of the reparations as provided for in the treaty of Versailles second place.

The declaration of the government was read by Premier Briand in the chamber and by Senator Marraud in the senate. It was heard with intense interest and was interrupted frequently by general applause.

The declaration expresses confidence that England will aid all the efforts to arrive at a understanding between the allies, which it says is a prime necessity to the settlement of all questions concerning peace now in dispute.

"France claims its due and all its duty," the declaration said. "She does not demand the impossible, but what is now most important is that all facilities of the debtor for payment in money and in any other form shall be applied to the profit of the creditor."

Mention is made of the military accord with Belgium which the declaration says was provoked "by indisputable interests for the common defense, and which despite its dissimilarity in customs regimes, led to an economic understanding equally desired on both sides of the frontier."

"The urgency of an effective peace with Turkey is recognized and the declaration asserts that 'taking into account the new circumstances the conversations going on with our allies will solve the oriental question.'"

ATLANTA LEADS SOUTHERN CITIES IN 1920 BUILDING

A review of building activity made by the American Contractor shows that Atlanta led all southern cities in building during 1920, with a construction valuation of $13,372,666, as against $12,602,476 for New Orleans, her nearest competitor.

Figures for 1920, in both 1919 and 1920, and figures for 1920, follow:

American Business Will Be Discussed At Ad Men Meeting

The problem of helping put American business upon a sound basis will be especially discussed by Irving P. Paschall, chairman of the international program committee, which will outline the advertising program for the Associated Advertising Clubs at the convention in Atlanta, June 12 to 15, inclusive, according to a communication received by Frank B. Lowenstein, district vice president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the world.

For several years the fundamental idea of advertising has been neglected, and many now have a mistaken idea of the value of advertising, expecting to perform miracles. The big job of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World now is to put over a more extended propaganda in behalf of advertising as a positive sales force.

AUTO THEFT CHARGE DENIED BY WALDRON

Charges made by J. C. King before Judge John H. Humphries yesterday that H. P. Waldron had assisted in the theft of an automobile parked on Crew street several months ago were vigorously denied in a statement given out last night by Waldron.

"It was not an accomplice in the theft of the car on Crew street nor have I ever had anything whatever to do with any stolen car," Waldron stated.

IVAN ALLEN IN FLORIDA ON A VACATION TRIP

Ivan E. Allen, president of the Atlanta Retail Merchants' association, is taking a vacation in Miami, Fla., and in his absence the affairs of the association are in charge of Samuel Rothberg, first vice president. Mr. Allen plans to depart tomorrow for his home in the north, which will be the most important trip of his history. He will handle one department himself. Mr. Rothberg will handle another department and Clarence Haverty, second vice president, will handle a third.

Wife Who Tried To End Life Says Husband Was Spy

Mrs. Fred Peters Claims Mate Left Her to Wed Another Woman.

Sensational developments may result from a federal investigation of the case of Fred Peters, pastry cook, alleged German spy and bigamist, who was imprisoned at police station Thursday after his wife, who lives at 73 Rankin street, had told city detectives her reason for taking fifteen grains of bishloride of mercury Wednesday night in an attempt to end her life.

The case of Peters, who is 33 years of age, and boards at 629 West Peachtree street, attracted the attention Thursday of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, agents were immediately assigned to investigate the charges made by the young woman.

Mrs. Peters had practically recovered Thursday from the effects of her attempt at suicide which she attributed to despondency over estrangement from her husband. She told detectives that he had left her last October and married a young German woman who came to America after the signing of the armistice.

Announcement was made at the federal building that the government will investigate the charges of Mrs. Peters that her husband was an agent of the Kaiser during the war, and also determine the circumstances of the alleged bigamous marriage charged by Mrs. Peters to see if any violation of the Mann white slave act was committed.

He told her according to her statement to officers, that he was a former member of the German imperial guard, and that he was then an agent of the German government, having been sent here on a secret mission.

He became acquainted, Mrs. Peters said, with other German agents when he obtained work as a pastry cook at a local hotel.

KENAN IN ATLANTA AS SPECIAL AGENT OF INSURANCE CO.

Robert G. Kenan, as special agent for Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama and Louisiana, of the Standard Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., is now located in Atlanta, which is southern headquarters for his well-known company.

Mr. Kenan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Livingston Kenan, of Savannah, and is a nephew of Savannah's well-known attorney, William L. Ginnillat, who is at the head of the Culver Military academy of Culver, Indiana.

Mr. Kenan, until recently, was located in Miami, where he was special agent of the New Hampshire Fire Insurance company.

Mr. Kenan belongs to one of the oldest Georgia families. He knows the insurance business "from the ground up," and is a valuable addition to Atlanta's large insurance colony.

FORMER BANKER HELD AS "DOPE" PEDDLER $3,000 Worth of Morphine Captured by Federal Agent in Raid.

The Atlanta Humane society will endeavor to raise $10,000 to carry on its work during 1921, the amount being declared absolutely necessary due to the increased field that the organization must cover.

This was announced yesterday following a meeting of the executive committee at the Chamber of Commerce.

William J. Rudland, former secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and manager of the war loan organization in the sixth federal reserve district, was named executive secretary with full powers to carry out the details of the campaign for members and money.

In a dramatic statement before the Commissioner Bond declared that he had purchased the morphine in New York last summer for his own personal use, and purchased a large quantity so as not "to be at the mercy of Atlanta dope peddlers," who, he said, exact exorbitant prices from local addicts.

Inspector Allen testified that a small pair of scales was found in Bond's room. Bond stated that the scales had been used in weighing doses for his own use. The inspector stated that although he could not testify to a sale by Bond, the way in which the narcotics had been prepared in packages, and the presence of the scales, led him to believe the man had intended to sell it. He also stated that he had received information that Bond had arranged to sell an ounce for $125.

The suggestion was made to Bond that he enter a plea of guilty to the charges and receive a sentence to the federal penitentiary, where he would be treated for the drug habit. Bond did not approve of the idea, and declared he would not go to the prison unless sent by a jury.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR WILL? SOME PEOPLE HESITATE

MR. "A" SAYS:

"I know the Trust Company of Georgia has had long years experience in the management of Estates and would handle mine successfully—But, I think my Brother or my Son could do it all right."

One of them probably could, if the estate is small or free from debts or other complications, and—if he should live and keep his health.

Trust Company of Georgia is not dependent upon the life or health of any man. It is a Responsible, Permanent Institution. It knows what to do and when to do it, and does it promptly.

MR. "B" SAYS:

"The Trust Company is a Corporation, not a person, not human."

True. No corporation is in itself human, although it is a legal person. But, realizing that it must deal with widows and orphans, at a time when they are overwhelmed with grief and dependent upon strangers, the Trust Company must be represented by men selected because of their kindly, sympathetic personality, as well as their business experience and mature judgment. These men must feel that their first duty is to guard the trusts in their hands and to deal with each individual interested with patience and sympathetic understanding. The Trust Company's interest is secondary only.

MR. "C" SAYS:

"The Trust Company is too technical in its methods."

Technical? Yes. Our thirty years experience has taught us that in most estates there are very many apparently unimportant details and duties which must receive careful study and close attention. Hasty, ill-considered action is apt to result in disaster. Nothing may be done in a rush, or without deliberation and forethought. We follow the law and the terms of the Will.

MR. "D" SAYS:

"The Trust Company is not broadminded enough to get the best results."

Narrow-minded? In a sense, Yes. In every instance, safety is our first thought. Safety secured, our next thought is for the best results. Our Trust Department is absolutely free from anything of an unsound or speculative nature. We turn down many investments in which a man might well take a chance with his own money. We have known of "broad-minded" individual Trustees who have made such investments of Trust funds, frequently with disastrous results. Yes, we are narrow-minded, to the point of strict conservatism, which is the better word.

MR. "E" SAYS:

"Is Trust Company administration of an estate more expensive?"

No. It is not. The law fixes the compensation of all executors, guardians and trustees, and the Trust Company can't make a dollar out of an estate above the legal commission. On the contrary, we save to every estate numerous expenses which an individual Trustee could not avoid. We have a perfect system for prompt handling of every item in an estate; there is no charge for office rent, clerical help, books and stationery, and the statement that we know what to do and when and how to do it, will bear repeating here.

YOU KNOW all this is true.

YOU KNOW the most important duty to your family is that YOU MAKE A WILL.

THEN WHY HESITATE LONGER?

ACT NOW. Make it a BUSINESS PROPOSITION.

Come in and talk it over with, or write to our Trust Officer about it.

MR. "C" SAYS:

"The Trust Company is too technical in its methods."

Technical? Yes. Our thirty years experience has taught us that in most estates there are very many apparently unimportant details and duties which must receive careful study and close attention. Hasty, ill-considered action is apt to result in disaster. Nothing may be done in a rush, or without deliberation and forethought. We follow the law and the terms of the Will.

MR. "D" SAYS:

"The Trust Company is not broadminded enough to get the best results."

Narrow-minded? In a sense, Yes. In every instance, safety is our first thought. Safety secured, our next thought is for the best results. Our Trust Department is absolutely free from anything of an unsound or speculative nature. We turn down many investments in which a man might well take a chance with his own money. We have known of "broad-minded" individual Trustees who have made such investments of Trust funds, frequently with disastrous results. Yes, we are narrow-minded, to the point of strict conservatism, which is the better word.

MR. "E" SAYS:

"Is Trust Company administration of an estate more expensive?"

No. It is not. The law fixes the compensation of all executors, guardians and trustees, and the Trust Company can't make a dollar out of an estate above the legal commission. On the contrary, we save to every estate numerous expenses which an individual Trustee could not avoid. We have a perfect system for prompt handling of every item in an estate; there is no charge for office rent, clerical help, books and stationery, and the statement that we know what to do and when and how to do it, will bear repeating here.

YOU KNOW all this is true.

YOU KNOW the most important duty to your family is that YOU MAKE A WILL.

THEN WHY HESITATE LONGER?

ACT NOW. Make it a BUSINESS PROPOSITION.

Come in and talk it over with, or write to our Trust Officer about it.

WILKINSON HEADS KAPPA ALPHA MEN FOR COMING YEAR

At a meeting of the Atlanta Alumni chapter of the Kappa Alpha fraternity Wednesday, Mel E. Wilkinson was elected to head the chapter for the coming year.

Mr. Wilkinson is to succeed John Westmoreland, whose term expired with the annual meeting and dinner Wednesday night. Other officers elected were: Hal Hunt, vice president; Don Watts, secretary; Robert Lee Avery, treasurer.

Mr. Watts was for two years the secretary of the Philadelphia chapter, and Mr. Avery has served as treasurer of the Atlanta chapter for a long time. The dinner was attended by 150 members of the fraternity, and the occasion was made a joint celebration of the birthday of Robert E. Lee, and the annual meeting.

A program, consisting of several addresses by leading members, was given. M. L. Britain spoke on Kappa Alpha ideals, weaving his discourse around the life of Lee; the Rev. Mr. Ashby Jones spoke of Kappa Alpha and southern sentiment, and J. N. Cochran delivered a clever original poem called "Prohibition."

The fraternity numbers among its members in Atlanta Governor Donnan, Judge Thomas Jeffries, Dr. E. G. Matheson, the Rev. Ashby Jones, Judge C. E. Kontz, Judge Chandler, Dr. William Perrin Nicholson, W. F. Melton, Mel Wilkinson, Robert Lee Avery, Howard McCall, Bishop John S. Mikell and Clark Howell. The chapters at Tech, Emory and Oglethorpe include many young men of Atlanta.

Thrill Week Workers Designate Friday As "Make-a-Will Day"

Today is "Make-a-Will day" in the general movement inaugurated by the Y. M. C. A. backed by the national government and many civic bodies to make this week a "Thrill week" all over the country.

Co-operating with the organizations behind the movement are many individual firms and corporations.

Friday is the day on which attention is called to the importance of making a will. Leaving your estate and your finances in good shape, subject to easy and economical administration, leaders in the thrill movement declare, is one of great importance.

And not only the matter of making a will is stressed, but the matter of selecting a trustworthy and competent trust company to administer your estate—a company that has had years of experience; that has the confidence of the people, and that knows all the technical points involved in the wise administration of your estate. There are many such companies in easy touch with Atlantans. Make your will today, and then leave its administration in the hands of a competent trust company.

"Romance of Cotton," says a newspaper headline. No doubt a film drama in several reels.

"Yes, the Very Thing for the Bedroom and Dining Room Floors!"

Special Prices for Today and Saturday

Today and Saturday will be big days at Haverty's! Another lot of those Wool and Fibre Rugs that attracted so much attention and sold so fast a few weeks ago will be offered again at special prices and on exceptional terms for today and Saturday. These are great rugs—the very thing for dining room and bedroom floors! Really, they are adaptable to any room in the house, for they come in a variety of patterns and color combinations. The wool and fibre material of which they are made is of enduring quality, and will afford unusual length of service; and yet they are so light they can be easily handled by the most delicate maid or housewife.

The quantity for this selling is limited, and we urge you to make your selections the first day. Judging from past sales, these rugs will go fast.

Size—	Regular Price	Special Price	You Save
9x12-foot Wool Fibre Rugs ...	$27.50	$19.95	$7.55
9x12-foot Wool Fibre Rugs ...	$25.75	$19.95	$5.80
8x10-foot Wool Fibre Rugs ...	$22.50	$17.75	$4.75
6x 9-foot Wool Fibre Rugs ...	$16.00	$10.95	$5.05

Any one of these rugs will be delivered to your home for a cash payment of only $1.95. You may pay the balance at the rate of $1 a week or (if you live outside Atlanta) $4 a month. No matter where you may live, you are invited to take advantage of this special rug sale. But remember these special prices are for TODAY AND SATURDAY ONLY.

Open Shop Is Styled
"Only True American Standard" by Mason
 Chicago, January 20.—The open shop is the only true American standard in which no man receives special privileges and all have an equal chance, declared Stephen C. Mason, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, before a meeting of members of the association here today. Mr. Mason emphasized the fact that the association had favored the open shop for years.
 "As American citizens we must all in our power to quell the spirit of discontent that rests on the country at present," Mason said. "Congress can do much by removing the government shackles on private business. We must meet organization with organization." The immigration question also was discussed by the speaker, who declared, "We should not restrict immigration. The labor organizations are trying to do so. They want to cause a shortage in labor—thereby sending wages sky high."

NET INCREASE IN MILL WAGES, EVEN AFTER CUT
 Washington, January 20.—A department of labor table published today said that if the maximum wage cut of 22 1/2 per cent so far reported from any cotton mill were applied generally in the industry to 1920 scales, it would leave an hourly wage 2.5 times as high as prevailed in 1913 or 1.4 times as high as in 1918.
 The 1920 figures, the table showed, were 3.6 times as high as in 1907; 3.2 times as high as in 1913, and 1.8 times as high as in 1918. At the same time the average full-time week for male frame spinners in 1920 was 50.7 hours as compared to 58.4 in 1907, and 56.9 in 1913 and for female frame spinners, 51.8 in 1920, as compared to 61.0 in 1907 and 57.5 in 1913.

PRESIDENT-ELECT SAYS AU REVOIR TO MARION, OHIO
 Marion, Ohio, January 20.—Quitting Marion for a vacation in Florida before entering the white house, President-elect Harding today vacated the residence on Mount Vernon avenue, which was the Mecca of the front-porch campaign pilgrimages, and closed up the little office next door, where many of the nation's notables have given their advice on current problems.
 Leaving at midnight, the president-elect's train will pass through Chattanooga late tomorrow afternoon and reach St. Augustine, Fla., Sunday morning. Mr. Harding expects to spend a year's vacation in the south, and his first platform speeches along the way, having planned to begin a good rest as soon as he boards his private car. A St. Augustine hotel will be his Florida headquarters, but first of all he will go entirely away from his cares in a two weeks' fishing trip down the eastern Florida shore.

Merry Row Follows The Proposed Removal Of Old Lanier Home
 Macon, Ga., January 20.—(Special)—The plan to move the little house in which Sidney Lanier was born from its present location on High street to Lanier Park, which also fronts on that street, is causing a merry row among the property owners on that street. Some favor the idea, while others oppose it, and the latter say they will resort to the courts to prevent it if necessary. They contend it will be the ruin of their property.
 Mrs. B. Sanders Walker, who owns the Lanier birthplace, has offered to present the house to the city, provided it is converted into a community house and maintained as a memorial to the famous Georgia poet.
